

THE LOUISVILLE WEEKLY COURIER--A CHEAP PAPER FOR THE MAN OF BUSINESS, THE FARMER, AND THE FAMILY CIRCLE.

Ahead of the Mail.

Circular from Mr. Spooner.
This Spooner, of Cincinnati, President of the order of Know-Nothings in Ohio, has addressed a circular to the fraternity, in which he earnestly exhorts them to support Mr. Chase. He attaches a far more comprehensive meaning to the term "American," than many of his brethren. He holds that it is not limited to opposition to foreigners, but that it is the embodiment of liberty in its widest and most exalted form.

Among the reasons urged by Mr. Spooner for supporting Mr. Chase are the following, which must carry weight with them.

While it is a well established fact that the great body of the order is in opposition to my interests, and to the interests of the slaves, it is also certain that they are not, and earnestly opposed to all extensions of slavery.

The Kansas and Nebraska strifes have no interest in them, but they are in opposition to the same.

It is the opinion of the Ministry that the predominant question of the North, overriding all others, is the question of the slaves.

They have no interest in the Senate, during this session, but are in opposition to the same, and to the movements of the slave power, and especially to all efforts to extend it.

Mr. B. Goodwin offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That this Council is this day dissolved, and the members thereof are left free to vote for whomsoever they please at the August election.

Resolved, That we look upon the Order as being dangerous to this government and well calculated to dissolve the Union of these states.

Resolved, That we are earnestly advised to leave our white and democratic friends in this State to dissolve their connection with such an Order, as we believe it to be the only course consistent with the honor and patriotic citizens of Kentucky.

The Council then adjourned.

Dissolution of a K. N. Council.

We find in some of our exchanges the following official publication of the dissolution of a Know-Nothing Council in Anderson county:

JULY 15th, 1855.

The Rough and Ready Council, No. 231, met according to a previous appointment. The President of the Council, Mr. B. Goodwin, and the Council proceeded to transact business; whereupon Mr. B. Goodwin offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That this Council is this day dissolved, and the members thereof are left free to vote for whomsoever they please at the August election.

Resolved, That we look upon the Order as being dangerous to this government and well calculated to dissolve the Union of these states.

Resolved, That we are earnestly advised to leave our white and democratic friends in this State to dissolve their connection with such an Order, as we believe it to be the only course consistent with the honor and patriotic citizens of Kentucky.

The Council then adjourned.

John T. Parker, President.

John T. Parker, Secretary, pro tem.
